

EVENING WITH MUMMY

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. — Whether you were born yesterday or born 5,000 years ago, you have a mother and mothers have been celebrated since the time of ancient Egypt.

Join RAFFMA, the Robert and Frances Fullerton Museum of Art, at Cal State San Bernardino on Friday, May 9 from 6 to 7:30 p.m., for “An Evening with Mummy.” At the event, families will get a chance to express their love for mum in an Egyptian fashion.

Children will create crafts including Mummy’s Day cards using Egyptian symbols and hieroglyphs, and moms will be treated like the Queen of the Nile with Egyptian inspired treats and tea.

The schedule of events includes an exclusive tour of RAFFMA’s unique collection of Egyptian antiquities where guests will learn about the role of women and mothers in ancient Egypt.

This event costs $5 for a family of three and $2 for each additional person. Parking at Cal State San Bernardino is $5 per vehicle.

For more information about this event, please contact Paige Taylor, Education and Outreach Coordinator, at (909)537-7783 or ptaylor@csusb.edu.

About RAFFMA

The Robert and Frances Fullerton Museum of Art is a nationally recognized museum accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, a Washington, D.C.,-based organization whose members must meet the highest standards in securing accreditation. During its 16-year history, RAFFMA has accumulated a permanent collection of nearly 1,200 objects focusing on Egyptian antiquities, ceramics and contemporary art. Located at Cal State San Bernardino, RAFFMA houses the largest permanent and public display of Egyptian art in Southern California.

General admission to the museum is free. Suggested donation is $3. Parking at Cal State San Bernardino is $5 per vehicle.

The museum is open Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Thursday from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.; and is closed Friday and Sunday. For more information, call (909) 537-7373 or visit the RAFFMA website at <http://raffma.csusb.edu>.
