When Art and Advertising Collide
Celebrating the mutually enriching relationship of advertising and creativity

Join us for the American Advertising Federations 2nd Annual Art Bash, student art auction benefiting the AAF-IE Academic Scholarship and the artist.

The Inland Empire chapter of the American Advertising Federation (AAF-IE) will be delivering blank canvases to student artists around the Inland Empire, inviting them to create a piece of art that best represents this year’s theme, “When Art and Advertising Collide.”

What will the Inland Empire’s most creative minds come up with?
It may end up on your living room wall!

May 11, 2012 6 p.m.-9 p.m.
Robert and Frances Fullerton Museum of Art (RAFFMA)
at California State University, San Bernardino

Silent auction proceeds support the AAF-IE Academic Achievement Scholarship, RAFFMA, and the Artist.
AAF-IE & RAFFMA Member Pricing: $10 (Includes Parking)
General Public: $15 (Includes Parking)
Wine bar and appetizers included!
Art Piece bidding will start at $25
